Getting Started

Getting Started is Easy

In this document learn more about how to get started, including how to:

- Sign Up
- Create a Project
- Invite Members
- Set permissions and restrictions

Tip:
Google Chrome, Firefox and Safari (Apple) are the recommended web browsers when using Projectis. (see last page)

The Perspective Page is the Projectis Project Dashboard; giving you a snapshot of activities across your projects.

The Project Page contains all the information specific for that particular project.

Sign Up

If you haven't signed up for a free trial go to:

<http://www.projectis.com/pricing.php>

...and enter your first name, last name, email address and company.

- Wait for an email in your inbox (check your spam filter if you don't see the mail in your inbox)
- Click on the email link and set up your account / profile
- Log in with your new username / password

Create a Project

Who can do this? : Subscription Administrators (Full, Project)

Steps:

- Select your name in the top right and select "Workspace Management" in the pull-down. Fig. 1
 - If you do not see "Workspace Management" you are not an Administrator on the subscription.
- Select the "Projects" tab. Fig. 1a
- Select the "New Project" sub-tab on the upper right hand side.
- Complete all the required information. Fig. 1b
- Select "Add This Project" button on the lower left hand side of the page.

Fig. 1a

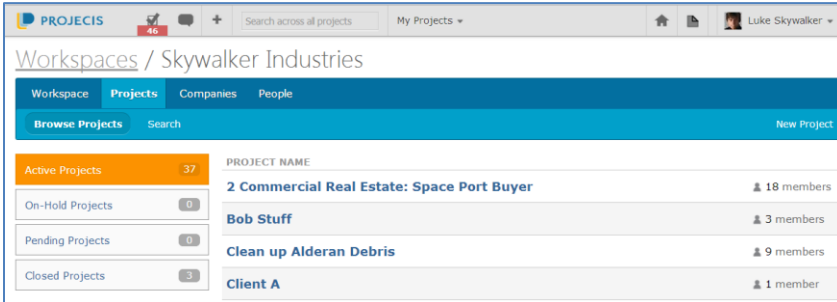

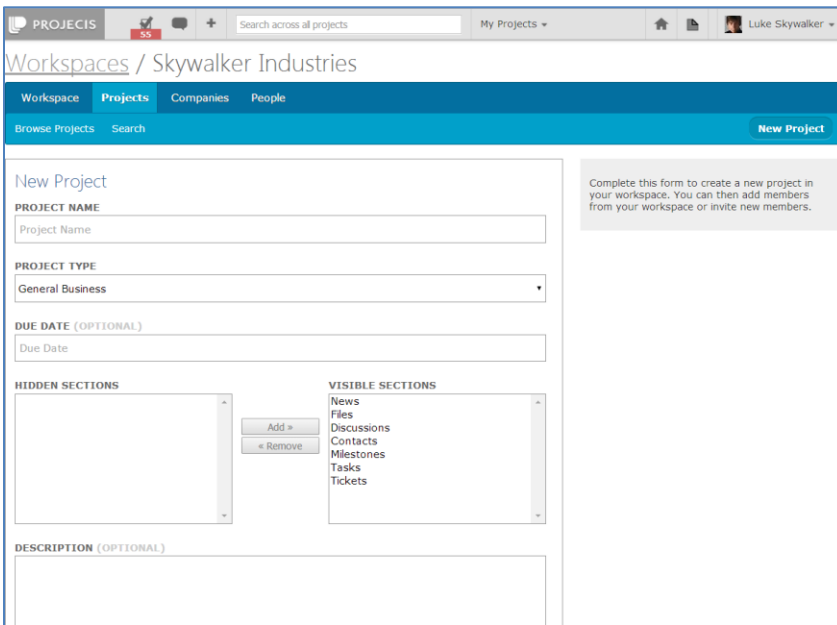

Fig. 1b

Tip:
Selecting the appropriate Project Type saves time by loading a variety of the pull-down menus with items common to the Project Type.

Selecting a particular Industry/project type (Fig.1d) when creating a project pre-loads a variety of pull-down menus with items normally used for the selected Industry. These include:

- specific content categories (Fig.1b) when uploading files, news or discussions
- roles that can be assigned to Project Team Members

Fig. 1d

Select one or more files to upload to this project.

Mark a file as Sensitive to hide it from restricted members of this project. Select Private or Confidential to select specific members, companies and roles that can access the file(s); Private files can also be accessed by all Leaders and Publishers, while Confidential files cannot.

The Protected file option blocks the ability to Download and Print the document, except for Leaders and Publishers. This option is not recommended for files that do not have previews.

Adding a Person to a Project

Who can do this? : Subscription Administrators (Full, Project)

Steps:

- Select your name in the top right and select “Workspace Management” in the pull-down (Fig.1)
- Select the “Projects” tab (Fig. 1a)
- Select the Project you want to add a person to
- Select “Member Assignments” in the Actions box on the right (Fig. 2)
- On the bottom left there is an “Add a Member” area
- Press the space bar in this field and a list of eligible people to add will appear (you can also type part of her name)
- Highlight the person to add and provide their Project Role and Project Permissions
- Save the changes

Tip:

You can only manage Contacts for subscriptions that you own or for which you are a Subscription Administrator.

Tip:

You can use this method to edit current members on the Project: change their role, permission or remove them from the project. Simply select the member you wish to edit on this project.

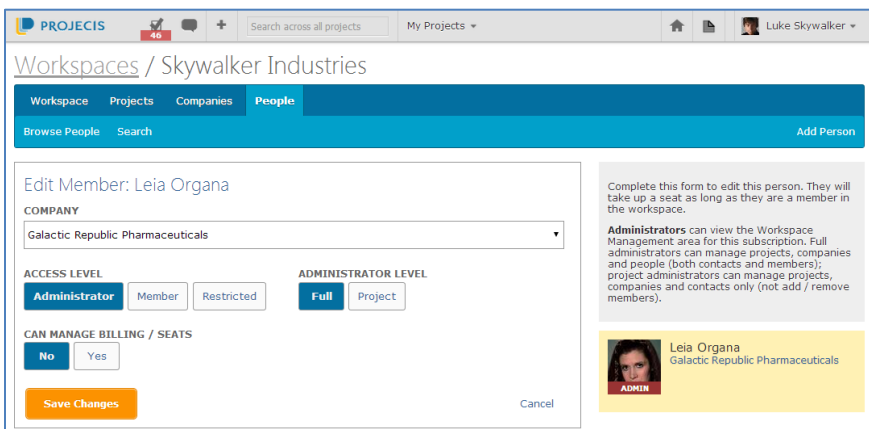

Fig. 3

Tip:

Permissions and Restrictions are the one of the primary methods to set varying levels of permission. These can be set at the Company or Contact level.

Fig. 3a

Project Level Permissions

Persons can have different permissions in different projects. Additionally, you can have multiple types of permissions in a given Project. In one project everyone may be a Leader, but in another project there may only be one Leader.

- Select your name in the top right and select “Workspace Management” in the pull-down (Fig.1)
- Select the “Projects” tab (Fig. 1a)
- Select the Project you want to add a person to
- Select “Member Assignments” in the Actions box on the right (Fig. 2)
- Select the member on the Project you want to edit
- Provide their Project Role and Project Permissions (Fig. 3b)
- Save the changes

See Permissions chart (Fig. 3c)

² None of the other permission categories and not a Restricted Person/Company

³ Protected Files not available for download or printing

⁴ Can only view files being reviewed if you are assigned to review the file

Restricted Designation

Persons who are restricted (as a Restricted Person or as part of a Restricted Company):

- 1) Is Restricted for a given Project. They may not be Restricted in other projects.
- 2) Cannot see other Restricted persons or any of their contributed content to a Project. This may include comments, documents, etc.
- 3) Restricted persons cannot see content (Files, News, Discussions) that are designated as 'Sensitive'

Other

- Companies can be designated 'Restricted' at the subscription level.
- If a Company is Restricted, all persons who belong to this company are also Restricted
- If a Person is Restricted other persons who belong to the same company may not be Restricted

Content Level Permissions

Content can be securitized at an individual item level such as Files, News and Discussions.

When you first upload or start such an item there will be an area asking for the kinds of Permissions should be attributed to the item. (Fig. 3d, 3e)

Protected (only available with Files)

Options: Normal, Protected

Description: If an item is 'Protected' it can be viewed within Projecis, but it cannot be downloaded or printed.

Availability

Options: Public, Sensitive, Private, Confidential

Description:

Public: Available to all persons on that specific Project Team

Sensitive: Available to all persons on that specific Project team except those who are "Restricted"

Private: User identifies who has access to this item. Access can be designated by person, company or role within the Project.

Leaders and Publishers still have access to this item even if they are not selected

Confidential: User identifies who has access to this item. Access can be designated by person, company or role within the Project.

Leaders and Publishers do not have access to this item if they are not selected
